For The Parish

Saint Luke Parish extends its deepest sympathy to the families of Fred McCarty, husband of parishioner Teresa McCarty; Jane Hartley Murnan, sister of parishioner Barb McDermott; Carmel Merendo, mother of parishioner Celeste Johnson; and John E. Borgert, brother-in-law of parishioners Dan and Cecelia Reid. Please pray for all our departed friends and relatives.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT:

Next week's Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty throughout America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With a tradition of improving education, housing, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Defend human dignity. Take poverty off the map. Please give to the CCHD Collection.

PURIFICATOR SCHEDULE: We would like to welcome anyone who would like to assist in washing and ironing the purificators...it requires only a few hours two or three times a year. Those ladies helping in 2013, thank you, and please advise the Parish Office (426-1733) or Nancy Wuebben (329-2449) if you wish to continue being on the Purificator schedule for 2014.

✦ ALL SOULS DAY ✦

THE BOOK OF NAMES OF THE DEAD

November is the time of harvest and the beginning of the earth's winter sleep. For centuries the Church has observed this month as a special time to pray for our dead. Again this year the parish Book of Names of the Dead will be at the Baptismal Font on November 1st. Parishioners are invited to write the names of their deceased family members in the book. This book serves as a reminder and invitation to pray for the dead. At each Mass during the month of November we will pray for those whose names are inscribed in the book. Names of parishioners who were buried from St. Luke Church during the past year have already been placed in the book. You may enter names in the book anytime throughout the month of November.

FAMILY REMEMBRANCE BINDER FOR OUR DEARLY DEPARTED

Our parish is also creating a Family Remembrance Binder with special homemade memorial pages. You are invited to participate in this beautiful tradition by creating a memorial page for deceased members of your family. You may pick up envelopes at the Jansen Center that contain the information/material you need.

ALL SOULS EVENING PRAYER

Since the 13th century, Catholics have set apart November 2nd as a day of prayerful remembrance for all the faithful departed. On Sunday, November 3rd, we will celebrate All Souls Day with a special Evening Prayer for the Dead starting at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. We will remember all parishioners who have died in the past year as well as all our beloved dead. Join us as we pray and help us celebrate the promise of resurrection and eternal life, which Christ has given to us.

CANDLES FOR ALL SOULS EVENING PRAYER

At the All Souls Evening Prayer we will light candles for those who have died in the past year. Family members may take these candles home after the service. We already have candles set aside for all parishioners whose funerals were held at our parish in the past year. The Evening Prayer is Sunday, November 3, 2013 at 7:00 p.m.

SOCIAL ACTION MINISTRY

"Christ has no hands or feet on earth but ours..."
St Teresa of Avila

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD PANTRY SCHEDULE:

The November schedule for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry follows: Stock Shelves: Saturday, November 9th and 23rd from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Hand Out Bags: Wednesday, November 13th and Tuesday, November 26th from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. Please call Bob Young (433-3372) for information.

CREATED FOR GIVING SALE: We invite you to the Created for Giving display in Kramer Hall after all Masses on November 9th and 10th to see Fair Trade crafts and our boutique-quality items handmade by St. Luke parishioners. In addition to autumn designs we will have the first showing of our new Christmas items.

Proceeds from Created for Giving sales fund St. Luke Social Action projects such as: 1) providing after school snacks and over the counter medicine for children of working homeless families at the Interfaith Hospitality Hotel in Xenia; 2) sponsoring a college student in Kenya, a high school student in Mexico and a vocational student in Guatemala; 3) making KIVA micro loans; 4) contributing to Michael's House to assist local children as they age out of the foster care program; and 5) covering the cost of ceiling materials for the Good Shepherd Ministries thrift store. We thank our customers who make the sponsorships and donations possible. Please think of us when shopping for your special events. This is a good time to place orders for items for December. We welcome sewing help and sales help at our bazaars. We have work for non-sewers and experienced sewers. For information, please contact Dee at (937)429-1265.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE PARTICIPANT: "It has been such an honor and humbling experience to witness and join in peacefully praying for an end to abortion. A couple of weeks ago, while praying in front of the women's clinic, I was standing next to my friend's 8-year-old adopted son. As we were quietly in prayer, he said: 'Abortion...Adoption...those are two words that sound similar but mean such different things.' If only everyone could see the truth with such clarity. This young boy truly is a blessing and a joy to everyone who knows him - praise God for life." — Teresa

40 Days for Life ends this weekend. However, everyone is invited to continue to come and make a prayerful difference at the women's clinic by continuing to pray at your regular hour or anytime.

HELP NEEDED PREPARING A MEAL FOR IHN: We are in need of volunteers to help with the evening meal at the Interfaith Hospitality Network Hotel in Xenia, Monday November 4th and Wednesday November 6th. This is a homeless shelter for working families. We will prepare food for approximately 25 guests (adults and children). Main course casseroles, some dinner buns, a fruit or green salad, and a dessert. Cookies, brownies or some small baked goods are always welcome. If you are able to help prepare part or all of a meal or what help you are able to give, please let Trudy know. Contact Trudy for information regarding the food drop off, what day you would like to help and what you plan to prepare. Trudy can be reached at tsara98047@aol.com or call 429-0807. Thank you for your continued support of this ministry. Your help is very much appreciated.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE will be available for purchase at the St. Luke Bazaar November 23rd and 24th. December sale will be December 14th and 15th in Kramer Hall after all Masses.

VATICAN II: DID YOU KNOW?

“...the Church, endowed with the gifts of her founder and faithfully observing his precepts of charity, humility and self-denial, received the mission of proclaiming and establishing among all peoples the kingdom of Christ and of God, and she is, on earth, the seed and the beginning of that kingdom. While she slowly grows to maturity, the Church longs for the completed kingdom and, with all her strength, hopes and desires to be united in glory with her king.” Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (Lumen Gentium) #5

+ RCIA Are you, or someone you know, interested in the Catholic Faith? Did you know that a person can inquire at any time throughout the year about Catholicism with no commitment beyond the interest of finding out more about what we believe and how it impacts our lives? Call Barbara at 937-426-1733 x305 or bmurray@saintlukeparish.org, to learn more.

+ Philadelphia to host the VIII World Meeting of Families On September 22-27, 2015, Philadelphia will welcome the 8th World Meeting of Families. This meeting is expected to draw a global audience. Since its inception by Blessed John Paul II in 1994, the World Meeting of Families aims to emphasize the good news of the family and highlight its intrinsic value to the good of society. You can visit their web site at <http://www.worldmeeting2015.org/> where you will find links to information about the world meeting as well as an opportunity to sign up for their news alerts. In June 2012, the 7th World Meeting, held in Milan, Italy, drew hundreds of thousands to the city with more than one million attending the Holy Father's Mass.

+ Cincinnati Arts Association Performance of THE PRIESTS The Association is offering discounted tickets to all Archdiocese of Cincinnati parishioners for the November 19, 2013 performance. The Priests are Fr. Martin O'Hagan, Fr. Eugene O'Hagan, and Fr. David Delargy, classical tenors and Catholic priests from Ireland. Visit www.CincinnatiArts.org/promotions and use promotion code CATHOLIC for the discount.

+ Pontifical Council for the Family In his address to the 21st plenary assembly of the Council, Pope Francis said that the “good news” of the family is a key element in evangelization and that Christians participate in this proclamation by their witness to life. “The truly Christian families are recognized by their fidelity, patience, openness to life, respect of the elderly ... The secret of all this is Jesus’ presence in the family,” Francis said. “And because of this, we come close with care and affection to families in difficulty, to those who are constrained to leave their land, who are broken, who have no home or work, or who are suffering for so many reasons; to spouses in crisis and to those now separated. We want to be close to them all.” Read the full text to the Pontifical Council for the Family at <http://www.zenit.org/en/articles/pope-s-address-to-21st-plenary-assembly-of-the-pontifical-council-for-the-family>

+ Books to Deepen Our Faith It's that time of year when we begin to think of the holidays and all the preparations they entail. A book is always a great gift for children and adults. In the weeks to come you will find suggestions here to deepen the faith of family and friends.

— Joseph, the Man Who Raised Jesus (Servant Books) We don't know much about Joseph or how he lived out his role as father of Jesus. Since there are no recorded words for Joseph, Fr. Gary Caster offers his insights based on the actions of Joseph...the man who risked everything to care for Mary and her Son. Fr. Caster points to the “reciprocity of love that perfectly defines the home in Nazareth as the very pattern for all family life – and therefore of the Church itself.”

— Meeting Jesus Through the Jesse Tree (Twenty-Third Publications) Introduce children to Catholic faith traditions in Anne E. Neuberger's stories and Advent activities. This book provides children with meaningful ways to anticipate the birth of Jesus and grasp the significance of salvation history.

+ Are You Gonna Stay? Children can give us unexpected wisdom, we just have to listen to them. Watch this short video and find out why children think we should go to church... <http://tiny.cc/umwb3w>

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

For Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (November 3, 2013)
“So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way.” Zaccheus was seeking Jesus out of curiosity. He wanted to “see who Jesus was.” Are you curious about Jesus? Do the things you learn about Jesus excite you and fill you with joy? In what ways? What trees have you climbed in order to get a better look at Jesus? Take some time to be aware of ways in which you see Jesus every day this week. Make a list of the times so that you can share them with your family or a friend

HERE AT SAINT LUKE

PLAY LIKE A CHAMPION TODAY™: PUTTING FUN AND VIRTUE FIRST IN YOUTH SPORTS: F. Clark Power, Ed.D., of the University of Notre Dame will deliver the 2013 Hesburgh Lecture, "Play Like a Champion Today™: Putting Fun and Virtue First in Youth Sports" on Thursday, November 14th, 7:00 p.m., at St. Luke Church. The presentation will be held in Kramer Hall (located in the main church building), 1440 N. Fairfield Road, Beavercreek. The lecture is co-sponsored by St. Luke School and the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Dayton. Professor Power's presentation addresses the question of what can we do to make sure that youth sports help children to develop as persons and to have fun playing? Using research from Notre Dame's Play Like a Champion Today™ Program, he shows that coach and parent education can make a difference. For additional information contact Mike Gazzero at mjgazzero@firstcommand.com. This lecture is free and open to the public.

ST. LUKE SCHOOL PRESENTS IT'S ALL GREEK TO ME!

The 6th and 7th grade classes will present It's All Greek To Me!, a mythological adventure comedy by Adam Crescenzi and Brendan Boland. Performances will be held November 15th, 16th, 22nd, and 23rd at 7:00 p.m. in Gilligan Hall. Ticket prices are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for students. Parents and their children may purchase a family pass for $8.00. Seating is limited, so advanced purchase of tickets is recommended.

AROUND THE AREA

CATHOLIC SCRIPTURE STUDY: Attention women of all ages! CSS is an exciting study for all women in the Dayton area. This study meets on Wednesday mornings (9:30 a.m.) OR evenings (7:00 p.m.) at St. Henry Parish, 6696 Springboro Pike. This year our study is titled "Hidden Treasures: A study of the Unique Women of the Bible." It's not too late to join us! Come to an intro class on Wednesday November 6th at either of the above times. For more information call or email Mel at 937-620-8642, melkerr4css@yahoo.com or Margie at 937-866-7917, dchristie-clan@aol.com or visit the CSS webpage for more information at www.sthenryparish.com.

RETREAT TO BE HELD BY WEAVERS OF JUSTICE: Fr. Chris Zerucha, a Cleveland diocesan priest and a global fellow for Catholic Relief Services, will direct this retreat, titled Brothers and Sisters: You are God's Building, as we continue to build our parish communities to respond as Jesus would to our poor and vulnerable neighbors. The retreat will take place on Saturday, November 9th from 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at the Pilarczyk Center, 1436 Needmore Road in Dayton. There is no cost. Space is limited. Reservations are requested. Please call Pat Grab at 937-224-3026 or pgrab@catholiccincinnati.org

WOMEN'S MORNING OF REFLECTION: Schedule your time to be with the Holy Spirit now before the holiday season is upon us! Please join Father John Bullock, LC and Father Matthew Summe, L.C. for Mass, confessions, spiritual talks and social on Tuesday, November 12th at St. Charles Parish. Registration is at 9:15 a.m. with Mass beginning at 9:30 in the Day Chapel. Talks and social to follow, ending at noon. Babysitting is provided. Please call Karen Connair at 433-2783 or Barbetta Whelan at 293-1438. Hosted by the Women of Regnum Christi.
