As Catholics in a worldwide faith community, we treasure our belief that we may be continually transformed by participation in the sacraments. The Archbishop, clergy and staff of the Archdiocese thank everyone for sharing the mission through your prayerful and generous support.

PURIFICATOR SCHEDULE: We would like to welcome anyone who would like to assist in washing and ironing the purificators...it requires only a few hours two or three times a year. Those ladies helping in 2013, thank you, and please advise the Parish Office (426-1733) or Nancy Wuebben (329-2449) if you wish to continue being on the Purificator schedule for 2014.

FUNERAL LUNCHEON LAY MINISTRY — THANK YOU: Thank you again to all the wonderful parishioners who generously donated food or served the meal at our recent funeral luncheons. We would not be able to provide these luncheons to our bereaved families without all your hard work and support. We are still looking for people willing to help serve this parish ministry by working at the luncheon or by preparing a dish to donate. Generally we call about three days before a lunch and ask for a food donation of your choice. We make every effort to contact you only once in a 2-3 month period. If you are interested in serving or donating food please contact Judy at Jeckh@sbcglobal.net, 426-1087; or Jeannine at michaelarber@sbcglobal.net, 426-7345.

We have a large assortment of plastic containers and aluminum pans that can be used to bring your donated food to these luncheons. They can be found in Kramer Hall's kitchen. If you have any questions please call or email.

ST. MONICA MINISTRY: Please join the St. Monica Ministry group Sunday, November 17th from 2:30 - 4:00 p.m. in Kramer Hall as we view the DVD: Catholicism - The New Evangelization by Rev. Robert Barron. Following from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. we will discuss the DVD and pray for our family, friends and all on our prayer list who are no longer practicing their Catholic faith, or have a weakened faith. All are welcome. For questions contact Teresa at 429-4675.

REMEMBER
THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US.

THE BOOK OF NAMES OF THE DEAD

November is the time of harvest and the beginning of the earth's winter sleep. For centuries the Church has observed this month as a special time to pray for our dead. Again this year the parish Book of Names of the Dead will be at the Baptismal Font on November 1st. Parishioners are invited to write the names of their deceased family members in the book. This book serves as a reminder and invitation to pray for the dead. At each Mass during the month of November we will pray for those whose names are inscribed in the book. Names of parishioners who were buried from St. Luke Church during the past year have already been placed in the book. You may enter names in the book anytime throughout the month of November.

FAMILY REMEMBRANCE BINDER FOR OUR DEARLY DEPARTED

Our parish is also creating a Family Remembrance Binder with special homemade memorial pages. You are invited to participate in this beautiful tradition by creating a memorial page for deceased members of your family. You may pick up envelopes at the Jansen Center that contain the information/material you need.

VATICAN II: DID YOU KNOW?

When the bishops in the Council Hall were voting on key issues, the crowds in St Peter's Square were chanting Veni Creator Spiritus (Come, Holy Spirit).

+ RCIA Are you, or someone you know, interested in the Catholic Faith? Did you know that a person can inquire at any time throughout the year about becoming Catholic, with no commitment beyond the interest of finding out more about what we believe and how it impacts our lives? If you simply need to be confirmed, arrangements can be made to prepare you for that sacrament as well. Call Barbara at 937-426-1733 x305 or bmurray@saintlukeparish.org, to learn more.

+ Papal Intentions for November General Intentions: That priests who experience difficulties may find comfort in their suffering, supporting their doubts, and confirmation in their fidelity. Mission Intentions: That as fruit of the continental mission, Latin American Churches may send missionaries to other Churches.

+ Cincinnati Arts Association Performance of *THE PRIESTS The Association is offering discounted tickets to all Archdiocese of Cincinnati parishioners for the November 19, 2013 performance. The Priests are Fr. Martin O'Hagan, Fr. Eugene O'Hagan, and Fr. David Delargy, classical tenors and Catholic priests from Ireland. Visit www.CincinnatiArts.org/promotions and use promotion code CATHOLIC for the discount.

+ Some Spiritual Lessons from Matthew's gospel Each year the Archdiocese offers an opportunity to hear from Scripture scholars who focus on the gospel for the coming liturgical year. This year, Fr. Tim Schehr presented "The Gospel of Matthew: An Invitation to the Kingdom of Heaven." Among Fr. Tim's many insights, he offered the following lessons to those attending the presentation: "be the salt of the earth; be worthy of inclusion in the genealogy of Jesus; embrace the standard of the Beatitudes; treasure the Kingdom of Heaven; strive to be a good and faithful servant of the Lord; bring good from within; pray for spiritual sight; ask for the right things; tend to your lamp so it burns brightly; be motivated to serve the unseen kingdom; aspire to bring others to God with the net of the gospel." Good lessons to ponder as Year A begins, December 1.

+ Pope Francis: Saints Aren't Superheroes, They Just Never Strayed From God Before reciting the Angelus with people gathered in St. Peter's Square on November 1, the pope talked about God's call to holiness. "The saints are friends of God," he said. But they "are not superheroes, nor were they born perfect. They are like us, each one of us. What makes them stand out," he said, "is once they encountered Jesus, they always followed him. The path that leads to holiness has a name and has a face, it's the face of Jesus Christ; he teaches us to become saints."

+ Books to Deepen Our Faith It's that time of year when we begin to think of the holidays and all the preparations they entail. A book is always a great gift for children and adults. In the weeks to come you will find suggestions here to deepen the faith of family and friends.

— Vatican Publishing House Releases Lectio Divina Book Published jointly by the American Bible Society and the Vatican Publishing House (Libreria Editrice Vaticana), Pray with the Bible, Meditate with the Word: The Exciting World of the Lectio Divina-A Manual for the Prayerful Reading of the Bible uses the ancient monastic practice of Lectio Divina to help readers draw spiritual help from Scripture.

— Meditations on Vatican Art (Liguori Publications) Fr. Mark Haydu offers this book as a way to deepen our relationship with God as we reflect on art from the Vatican collections and pray the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises.

— Martin de Porres: The Rose in the Desert (Publisher: Clarion Books) Written by Gary D Schmidt and illustrated by David Diaz, this award-winning book tells young readers about the man who was born a slave, was received into the Dominican Order and became a saint.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

*For Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
(November 10, 2013)*

"...and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." The Sadducees believed this life ends with death. We, however, know that our death is but a passage from our life on earth to God's promise of everlasting life. How does believing in everlasting life shape your daily living? What experiences in your life provide you with hints of what God's fullness of life might be like? This week, take some time to look for signs of the Kingdom of God. During your prayer time, reflect on the signs and how they invite you to live today. Ask the Holy Family to deepen your awareness of our God "of the living."

May God richly bless our past, present, and future Veterans for their gift of unselfish service to our country.
