QUESTION OF THE WEEK

*For the feast of Easter Sunday
(April 20, 2014)*

"They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." What will we do with the practices that have become part of our Lenten journey? Will we set them aside until next Lenten season? Will they get lost in the busy lives we lead? Now that Easter is upon us and we rejoice in the Resurrection, will we forget those moments that touched our hearts and perhaps deepened our faith during Lent? This Easter, let us honor Jesus by retaining one of the commitments we made for Lent. In the midst of graduations and first communions and weddings and vacations summer, can we promise to set aside some time for the Risen Christ?

Jesus is risen! He is alive! He lives within and among us!
